

Words

annihilation - to do away with so that it will never live argue - to tell a person, "I am right and you are wrong!" commandments - laws; what we are told to do control - to make someone or something do as they are told; to keep someone or something in check create - to make something out of nothing cult - the way in which a group of people worships diligently - very carefully; to do something continuously with all our strength, and the best we can evangel - good news of Jesus evangelism - the work of telling people the good news of Jesus faith - the belief that something is true even if we have not seen it; belief in God fellowship - when two or more people believe and enjoy the same thing; they tell each other everything; they feel and think the same about many things gospel - good news of Jesus immersion - to go under water iniquity - sin lake of fire - place of eternal punishment mass - a large number; mass evangelism is telling many people at the same time about Jesus nag - to make trouble by teasing; to tell someone many times, "You should not do this" or "You should do this" personal - belonging to a person pervert - to turn from truth or right prejudice - an opinion formed without full knowledge; to look down on a person who is of different belief, race or color reconcile - to make peace between two people who are not friends recreation - pleasures that make people happy, usually where people play together and have fun together or just relax respect - to look up to; good enough to honor salvation - to be free from the power of sin and the punishment of sin soul winning - bringing people to Jesus ungodly - not like God watchman - a man who watches over buildings or people so they will not be hurt witness - to tell what we know about or have heard or have seen